History & Philosophy

Founded December, 2000 by Melissa C. Sims, Commercial Environments, Inc. is recognized as a provider of quality products and interior design services throughout the Greater Knoxville Area. Since opening our doors, Commercial Environments continues to grow exponentially in the interior design and commercial furniture industry. Because of the company's small beginnings, Commercial Environments, Inc. places extensive emphasis on customer service, loyalty, and strong client relationships. Melissa Sims, President of Commercial Environments, is a registered Interior Designer and holds a Bachelor's Degree in Interior Design with eleven years experience in the interior design and furnishings arena. She is accompanied by a team of skilled designers and sales staff who work together to guarantee successful completion of each project while remaining attentive to each client's needs.

Commercial Environments offers a full range of interior design services for corporate, healthcare, financial, and manufacturing environments. Our company is committed to providing clients with quality office products and services that ensure function and flexibility in today's ever-changing office environment. We extend to you a variety of professional design services that include the following:

- CAD-generated space planning
- Interior finish and furniture specifications
- Artwork and accessory selections
- Product installation
- Reconfiguration of existing product

Commercial Environments' project management approach to efficient design solutions makes our company a valuable contributor to the design community. By offering a diverse selection of products and services, Commercial Environments continues its valued tradition of design excellence as we remain committed to exceeding the expectations of every client.
