Space On The Floor Theatre Presents...

The Governor General Award-winning play Of The Fields Lately, by David French, is being produced by Space on the Floor Theatre. The troupe will be taking this wonderful play to the Theatre BC Kootenay Zone Festival in Revelstoke in May.

The play reunites the ex-pat Mercer family, originally from Newfoundland After leaving home following a violent confrontation with his father, Ben returns two years later for his aunt's funeral. Additional unresolved issues drive this poignant story which is filled with dysfunctional humour.

You can see Of The Fields Lately in Ymir on Saturday, May 5 at 8 pm. Doors open at 7:30 pm. Tickets are $10 at Skyways Hardware in Salmo. Call 250-357-9911 or get your tickets at the door.

Space on the Floor Theatre won Best Production at the provincial Actoberfest Play Festival in 2010.

I, Claudia

This one-act play runs just over an hour and introduces you to Claudia, a pre-teen, who is still reeling from her parents' divorce. Her father is getting remarried, she has a science fair project coming due, and she is in the physical and emotional throes of puberty. Finding refuge in the basement of her school, Claudia discovers the pain at the centre of her brimming child's heart. Some important adults in Claudia's life – her grandfather, her father's new girlfriend, and the school custodian – help shed light on her situation.

These characters are brought to life by one actress who wears a different mask to portray each individual. The masks were made by local artist Robin Wiltse specifically for this production, and Kaslo resident Lynn van Deursen is very excited to have this opportunity to bring them to life as she shares Claudia's story with you, the audience.

I, Claudia by Kristen Thomson will be shown at the Langham Theatre on Saturday, May 19 and Sunday, May 20 at 7:30 pm. Tickets are $12 and available at Sunnyside Naturals and Willow Home Gallery.

This City Is Made For Walking

Jane's Walk will be held on Saturday, May 5 and Sunday, May 6, starting at Oso Negro Cafe at 2 pm and 1 pm respectively. Many people in Nelson and around the world will take to the street to answer Jane Jacobs' famous call to "get out and walk". The 6th annual Jane's Walk is a chance to explore Nelson's neighbourhoods with fresh eyes and a curious mind.

Created in 2007 in Toronto by friends of the urban thinker and author Jane Jacobs, the free, volunteer-led urban walks have grown exponentially from 27 walks the first year to over 500 walks around the world – from Calgary to Canberra and Sao Paulo to Saskatoon – in over 75 cities and 16 countries.

Walks are as varied as the people taking part, and they create the time and space for people to connect, share, and develop ideas about where their communities and cities are at and where they are headed.

Ask yourself – what kind of Jane's Walker are you? From the Curious who wants to get behind the scenes, the Green at Heart, the Foodie, the friendly Neighbour, the Aesthete roaming the open-air urban museum, the Active moving about the city and the Citizen fascinated by the past and future of the city, its public space and institutions, there are walks for all city-lovers.

Find detailed walks at www.janeswalk.net, look out for posters with walk details in local shops, select favourites on the free iPhone app and get out and walk on Saturday May 5 and Sunday May 6!

For more information, contact Jane's Walk Nelson organizer Don Carmichael at 250-352-0794.

Copper is a white and orange. 1 ½ year old purebred ragdoll that was surrendered by his owner to the Nelson SPCA. He has a lovely personality, is very friendly and loves to be groomed. He was an indoor apartment cat who has very little interest in the outside world. Copper didn't like other cats before he came to the SPCA, but seems to have warmed up to his fellow communal mates. Copper prefers a home without dogs.

Earth Day Rally

Kootenays for a Pipeline-Free BC, teamed up with Keep Jumbo Wild to launch the largest Earth day rally in the Kootenays. Over 600 people came together in front of the Nelson City Hall on Sunday, April 22 to celebrate their roles as stewards of our BC Northern Gateway and local Jumbo Glacier.

Diverse organizations, groups and people of all ages participated, along with their signs, banners, petitions, props, songs and messages. The rally closed with a peaceful march.

Members from the Kootenays for a Pipeline-Free BC announced upcoming events – including an award winning film, On the Line, to be shown by the film maker at the Castlegar Library on Monday, May 7 and Tuesday, May 8 at the Nelson United Church, and an educational event to be presented at the Capitol Theatre in Nelson on Wednesday, May 30, featuring Andrew Nikiforuk, award winning author of the book, Tar Sands and Executive Chair of the Coastal First Nations, Art Sterritt.

Nelson Garden Festival

If gardens are good teachers, there will be lots to learn at the 11th Annual Nelson Garden Festival on Saturday, May 12 on downtown Baker Street.

"We have more vendors than ever," says one of the festivals organizers Glyn Violini. "Each year the festival grows and really, community agriculture prospers."

Violini, a heather and rose vendor who helped start the first garden festival, has seen the event grow from a few tables in 2001, to more than 40 vendors and community groups today. Sponsored by the EcoSociety, the garden festival will again feature a stunning array of perennials, annuals, veggies, herbs and flowers as well as garden accessories and custom furniture, manure and fertilizers.

"This is where you'll find hardy local varieties for your garden from the region's prime growers," says Violini. "We always hold it on Mother's Day weekend so you can find something for mom, too."

The festival runs from 10 am to 3 pm, rain or shine, on the 200 block of Baker and Kootenay Street. For more information call 250-354-1909 or visit www.ecosociety.ca
