Ex-Judge Florentino Floro, Jr. of Malabon City, Philippines; moron, court jester

While sitting on the bench, Florentino was found guilty of the following misconduct by the Regional Court in Malabon City: For opening court proceedings by falsely stating he was a "Bar topnotcher" who passed the bar exams with an average score of 87.55% Changing from blue court robes to black each Friday to “recharge his psychic powers” as the No. 5 psychic in the Philippines. For claiming to have the assistance of “three dwarf friends named Louis, Armand and Angel” who, unseen by others, provided him with assistance in the court. Lord have Mercy, I believe I may have been witness to several Florentino sightings in the past that occurred while I was visiting courts in Sacramento and Toledo. As a consequence of his misconduct, the Philippine Supreme Court removed Florentino from the bench.

It is somewhat comforting to know that the U. S. of A. isn't the only country that employs judicial morons and jesters. Unfortunately, unlike the Philippines, our morons/jesters are never removed from the bench. In fact, in many instances they are elevated to higher positions in the judiciary thereby allowing to wreak even more havoc on the public.

The Divine Mercy is a Roman Catholic devotion to the merciful love of God and the desire to let that love and mercy flow through one's own heart towards those in need of it. The devotion is due to Saint Mary Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938), who is known as the Apostle of Mercy. The feast of Divine Mercy Sunday was instituted by Pope John Paul II and is celebrated the Sunday after Easter on the General Roman Calendar, and is associated with specific indulgences.

Ildephonsus of Toledo (Saint Ildefonsus or Ildephonsus) (rarely Ildephoses; died 23 January 667) was the metropolitan bishop of Toledo from 657 until his death. He was a Visigoth and his Gothic name was Hildefuns, which evolved into the Castilian name Alfonso. Ildefonsus, however, is known as San Ildefonso in Castilian and there are several places named after him. He was canonised and his feast day is 23 January, the date of his death. His writings were less influential outside of Hispania, but he remained a potent force in the peninsula for centuries. Like several of his seventh-century predecessors, Ildefonsus was a monk from Agali, and specifically abbot, before being raised to the metropolitan see of Carthaginiensis. http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/St._Ildephonsus <http://lifestyle.inquirer.net/32703/miracle-of-the-roses-in-san-ildefonso-bulacan-fiesta> Bro. Carmelo Villanueva Cortez Filipino visionary healer Bro. Carmelo Villanueva Cortez (center) with Dr. Gil Villacorte and his wife Dr. Teresita Villacorte. Cortez healed for five hours in San Ildefonso Church, changing rose petals into religious icons. The gift given to Carmelo began in 1993 when the Blessed Virgin Mary reportedly appeared to him in a dream. He was guided to build a chapel on a lot in Barangay San Vicente in Santa Maria, Bulacan. Healing Masses are held on the first Saturday of the month at 11 a.m. Carmelo Cortez has an older sister Puring Fruto, of San Francisco del Monte in Quezon City.

Other visionaries or seers are Lito Valero of Manila, and an alleged stigmatist named Alan Robinson, who is now said to live in the U.S. In the 1940s during controversial apparitions to a Carmelite named Teresita Castillo of Lipa City, Batangas. It was in June 12, 1991, Bro. Carmelo, then at 21, first witnessed manifestations of rose petals with religious images, and healing. He saw the Mother of Eucharist and Grace, a young lady dressed in white and bathed in brilliant light. Her heart was visible with the Eucharist at the center surrounded by golden stars. She held a rosary on her right hand and a scapular on her left. He is also busy managing the Bayad Center, which is under Meralco. He also has a program at the Radyo Veritas every Sunday. And as a family man, he fulfills his obligations as a husband to his wife and a father to his three children, one of whom is about to be ordained this year.

In June 1991, living in a squatters' area in San Francisco Del Monte in Quezon City, Carmelo was given a picture of the Madonna, which he placed on an altar. The following night he heard a soft voice and the sound of beautiful music. Cortez followed the voice and found it was emanating from the picture. The Madonna was shedding tears of blood and the baby Jesus in the altar appeared to be catching the tears with one hand. The picture was later placed on a church altar, and a relative of Cortez was healed of a fever. Two days later, Cortez said he was again awakened by beautiful music, and the Madonna began giving him messages. Since that time, Cortez has seen and talked to the Madonna more than 100 times. The visionary healer has a radio program on Sundays at 12 noon to 1pm at Radio Veritas 846 AM band <http://www.asianjournal.com/datetime-usa/15-datetime-usa/3277-gods-wake-up-call-for-filipinos-to-change--bro-carmelo-corte.html> Cortez has a wife Rosita, with 6 children Margarita, Purity, Clarisse, Carmela, Divino and Carlo the couple said the main message of the Madonna was "Pray for the priests. Pray for the Catholic church. Prayer is the most important thing in life." Sacred images appear on rose petals that Cortez has touched – images of the Madonna, the Sacred Heart, Mother and Child, St. Joseph and Child, St Francis of Assisi, and many others.
